

Women's Pan Throwing Contest

Don't take your frustration out on your man - harness that aggression and grab a hunk of cold cast iron. Throw it like you mean it and you may win the prize!

When? Friday September 9th, 2011, at 7:30pm on the tennis court

Who: Ladies Only (participants must be 18 years old or older)

What: This looks nothing like the Frying Pan we use

Rules:

1. Pan will be provided, no practicing prior to event, except in your own backyard!
2. Everyone throws the same pan.
3. No food allowed on the pan.
4. No special resin allowed on hands before tossing.
5. Throw underhand.
6. Decapitation of any spectator is grounds for disqualification.
7. Winner is selected based on distance after the pan comes to a complete stop. Where the pan hits the ground has no bearing on the final decision of the judges. Distance after complete stop is the measurement used.
8. Competitors must be registered prior to the beginning of the event. Register by signing in on clipboard marked Women's Pan Throwing Contest.
9. You may only throw once and no one can throw for you.
10. Steroid use will not be tolerated.
11. Judges decisions will be final.
12. Costumes are encouraged, but have nothing to do with the actual rules of the event.
13. All rules can be changed day of event as can the schedule of all events.
